What They Really Want

Any man who believes what women say when they talk about who they are and what they want in a man and a relationship, are always befuddled as to why they're never who they say they are, and why they always chase Men who are the complete opposite of what they said they wanted. Most Men in the West have experienced this phenomenon more times than they can count.

One of the most ubiquitous axioms in the Red Pill community is never believe what a woman SAYS, watch what she does. While this is 100% true, most guys don't have the patience or the discipline to refrain from committing to a woman long enough to observe her to get an accurate read on who and what she is.

As a result, Men are wasting a lot of time with the wrong women and getting played for fools. This chapter will translate the things women say when they describe themselves, and what they want in relationships.

What she SAYS:
No, you cannot see my phone!

What she MEANS:
I don't want you to see I'm texting other guys

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

It's funny how one minute, girls are always bitching and moaning about their privacy, then the next they're telling all their social media followers where they are, what they're doing, and who they're with. They don't seem to be too concerned about privacy when they're attention seeking. If you trained your woman properly from the start, you should already have access to her phone. Why? Because you made it clear that you don't commit to women who do not make their phones available to you anytime you want. If your girl tells you that you cannot see her phone your relationship is already over because it's clear she is, or is about to start fucking another guy.

What she SAYS:

Hey, let's try an open marriage!

What she MEANS:

I want to sleep around but stay married

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Today's women want all the benefits without any of the costs. They want to be thin, without watching their diets and training 5 days a week. They want the power, without the responsibility. As far as relationships go, girls want the security and status of a relationship, without having to uphold their end of the bargain. And one of the biggest parts of that bargain is staying faithful. If your wife suggests an open marriage, she's simply looking for permission to continue cheating on you. Period.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

*I use social media
to stay in touch with family & friends*

What she MEANS:

*I use social media
to keep my dating options open*

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women use social media for two main purposes:

#1 - Attention seeking

#2 - To hide their cheating. Most affairs start on social media. Which is exactly why you should never commit to a woman who is on social media.

What she SAYS: I of IV

I can't stand Kevin in the sales department!

What she MEANS:

*I want to fuck
Kevin in the sales
department*

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of IV

There's no way I'd ever do anything with Kevin in sales

What she MEANS:
*I want to fuck
Kevin*

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: III of IV

Kevin is short, balding, ugly, and has bad breath!

What she MEANS:

Yep...I wanna fuck Kevin

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: IV of IV

*Kevin's married.
I'd never mess with him!*

What she MEANS:

Wife or not, I still wannna fuck Kevin

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Law XXIV of The XLIX Laws of Sharpe states that the more a woman tries to convince you of something, the more likely the OPPOSITE is true. If your girl tells you she can't stand a guy at work, she either has, is, or wants to fuck him. Start the countdown to the day she tells you about a "team building workshop" or "happy hour with the sales department" after work. Don't be surprised when you show up to her company Christmas Party and Kevin's a 6'4" alpha chad with a full head of hair, perfect teeth, and movie star looks. Oh yeah, he's probably single too.

What she SAYS:

I want to spend the rest of my life with you

What she MEANS:

I want to spend my life with you ...after I fuck 100 guys

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is the typical dating arch of the Westernized woman. They wanna fuck all the hot bad boy players when they're young and hot, then give the leftovers to the Men who were invisible to them for better than a decade. Never allow a woman to fool you into thinking she wants to spend the rest of her life with you....especially if she's under the age of 25.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

Why can't I find find a guy like you?

What she MEANS:

I don't want you but I want you around to give me BF benefits

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is one of go to strategies girls use to keep the guys they have in the friend zone hoping she'll eventually give them some pussy. She doesn't want a guy like you. At least not until she's done being passed around by all the bad boys.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm done being treated like shit!

What she MEANS:

I'm tired of getting passed around by players

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Beware of the women who tell you they're tired of being treated like shit. This means they've been ran through longer, and more thoroughly than the average slut. If a woman tells you this even ONE time,

DO NOT COMMIT TO HER

Just use her for sex. Nothing more.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS: I of III

Bad boys are SOOO overrated

What she MEANS:

*The hot bad boy
players don't want
me anymore*

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of III

I now understand my worth!

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy
players don't want
me anymore

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: III of III

I think I've finally come to my senses

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy
players don't want
me anymore

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls love to act like they didn't know getting butt fucked raw by anything with a y-chromosome and a smile in their 20s wasn't what they should be doing. If that were the case, they'd be honest about their notch counts. Never commit to a woman who tells you she "now understands her worth" or that "she's come to her senses." Women know Men of value don't commit to sluts which is why they do their level best to cover their slutty tracks by any means necessary.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm ready for something real

What she MEANS:

I'm ready for a nice guy to come and rescue me from my bad decisions

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is the first line in the anthem of the post wall slut who's recently been escorted off of the carousel. This statement, again, lets you know that she is only good for sex. Commit to women who say this at your peril.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
I love to work out!

What she MEANS:
I love to take pictures of myself at the gym showing my assets

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Now to be fair, a good amount of girls DO enjoy working out. But don't get it twisted, even if she's actually working up a sweat, you can be your ass she's taking booty pics between sets.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

My best friend is a guy

What she MEANS:

You can fuck me without spending money on me

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Believe it or not when a woman tells you her best friend is a guy, it means you won't have to spend money on her or listen to her yammer on about her endless drama. Now keep in mind, the other guy COULD be her fuck buddy. It's very rare in this scenario, but it does happen. But better than 9 times out of ten, a woman's best friend is the guy she has friend zoned.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS: I of II

I don't get along other women

What she MEANS:

I could, but I don't like hanging out with women

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of II

I was a tomboy growing up

What she MEANS:

I hang out with guys to be the center of attention

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women know that if you find out they mostly hang out with guys, that they're a slut. And because she doesn't want you to KNOW she's a slut she'll indirectly imply that she hangs out with guys. If a woman tells you she doesn't get along with other women or that she was a tomboy growing up, she's telling you she sleeps around. Period.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I went to Catholic School

What she MEANS:

I lost my virginity at a young age

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Any girl who went to catholic school eventually ends up as a slut. While there are many obvious reasons for this, those are not your concern. The reason she tells you she went to catholic school is to sell you purity. She wants you to think that she kept her "Catholic Values" when she went off to college. Trust me when I tell you that the only "catholic" activity she did in college was getting on her knees. And it wasn't to pray.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

My father is/was a preacher

What she MEANS:

I started sleeping around as soon as I went off to college

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Preacher's daughters are some of the biggest sluts out there and this is common knowledge in and out of church. And most of them start fucking as soon as they hit puberty. And as we all know, the earlier she starts fucking, the more guys she HAS fucked.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS: I of II

My dad would love you!

What she MEANS:

I am SO not attracted to you

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of II

My dad would hate you...

What she MEANS:

You are SOOOOOO hot

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

If a girl tells you her dad would love you, it means you're not a threat to break her heart. This means she's not aroused by you. If she tells you her dad would HATE you, it means you've got player vibes and Fathers hate players when they're dating their daughters. This also means she wants to take as much of your semen as her uterus can handle. If a woman ever tells you her dad would love you, she is telling you that you are NOT her first choice.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

You wouldn't like my friends

What she MEANS:

My friends will try to sleep with you if I bring you around

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Birds of a feather flock together. A slut has slutty friends. More importantly, sluts know how sluts operate. There's honor among thieves and there's even less among sluts. So if a girl doesn't bring you around her friends, she's afraid one or more of them will try to sleep with you, which confirms her as a slut.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm afraid of getting hurt

What she MEANS:

I've been fucked and chucked by too many bad boy players

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Any woman who says she's afraid of getting hurt is telling you in no uncertain terms she's been fucked by a shitload of Men. Getting hurt once or twice never makes women gun shy about relationships. Getting fucked and chucked hundreds of times gives her PTDD...Post Traumatic Dick Disorder.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm single as fuck

What she MEANS:

*I'm single so I fuck...
...A LOT*

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls love to utter this phrase to make us think they don't like being single. The only thing they don't like about being single is feeling alone at the end of the night after getting another load shot in her by a Tinder date. But outside of that, girls choose will deal with loneliness to keep the string of random dick coming 11 times out of 10.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I want a guy who lets me be me

What she MEANS:

I want a guy who lets me get away with flirting w/other guys

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Sluts know that when they say “let’s me be me” they mean “let’s me engage in slutty behavior”. They’ll never say this out loud but trust me when I tell you, it’s exactly what they mean.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I like being single

What she MEANS:

I like sleeping around

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

No woman actually LIKES being single. They just like the freedom of fucking random guys without having to answer to anyone.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
I have trust issues

What she MEANS:
I've been nailed and bailed on by a lot of bad boy players

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Every woman has trust issues on some level. But the ones who actually admit it out loud are the ones who've fucked the most guys.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I hate being single but I don't want a boyfriend

What she MEANS:

I wanna sleep around but not sleep alone

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Once again, women want all the benefits without any of the costs. The benefits of being a slut is that you don't have to answer to anyone. They love getting ran through, and nobody cares because you they don't have a boyfriend. But then they want to complain about sleeping alone every night. They can't have it both ways but for some reason they think they can. Typical.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I don't like it when I like a guy more than he likes me

What she MEANS:

I don't like it when I can't control a guy's emotions

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls hate it when they don't have a decided advantage on the dating market and it trickles down into their individual relationships. If they like a guy more than he likes her, she's no longer in control and girls don't like that.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

*I want a guy who
can be vulnerable*

What she MEANS:

I want to know his weaknesses so I can take advantage of him

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls think they want a vulnerable guy for the reasons television and movies tell them they do. But the reality is that they want a guy who's weaknesses can be used against him.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I love being single!

What she MEANS:

I love being a slut!

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

It's all fun and games until the bad boy players don't want them anymore. Then all of a sudden it's back to "I hate being single"

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm afraid of falling in love

What she MEANS:

I'm afraid a guy will to do me what I've done to a lot of guys

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Because women believe in the ridiculous notion of “karma” they live in constant fear that they’re going to get payback for all the times they’ve screwed guys over with their cheating and pointless drama. Yes, they’re afraid of getting hurt, but they’re MORE afraid of “bad karma”.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I want a guy who won't try to change me

What she MEANS:

I want a guy who will let me keep my promiscuous habits

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

If a woman likes you enough she'll change whatever she has to about herself to secure your commitment....except for her slutty habits. Going to bars and clubs, traveling alone, and being on social media are just 3 of many promiscuous proclivities that women want Men to "leave alone" and not try to change about them. When they say they don't want a guy to change them, they mean they want a man who allows them to put their relationship at risk but still be in the relationship.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS: I of II

I want a guy who will let me keep my independence

What she MEANS:

I want a guy who'll let me disappear for hours without a call or text

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of II

I don't want to lose my freedom

What she MEANS:

I don't want to lose my ability to keep other guys on the backburner

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls use “independence” and “freedom” as a ruse to disappear for hours without contact. “I was working on project” or “I was inquiring about blah blah blah.” Bullshit. “My independence” is womanese for my margin to cheat.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS: I of VII

I want a guy who follows through

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy players never follow through

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of VII

I want a guy who gives me gifts

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy
players never give me gifts

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: III of VII

I want a guy who never looks at other girls

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy
players always flirt
with other girls

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: IV of VII

I want a guy who listens

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy
players never listen

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: V of VII

I want a guy who takes me on dates

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy
players never take me on dates

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: VI of VIII

I want a guy who is okay with public displays of affection

What she MEANS:

The hot bad boy players are not affectionate

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: VII of VII

I want a guy who is respectful

What she MEANS:
The hot bad boy players are disrespectful to me

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

A tell tale sign of a woman who's been ran through by players is when she says she wants a "good guy." And if you listen closely these "good guy" traits they're asking for, are simply the things that the Men who used to blow their loads in their faces and ghost, NEVER did.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I want a guy who is willing to open up

What she MEANS:

I want a guy I can use his weaknesses against

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women don't respect Men who open up to them emotionally no matter what movies and television tell you. While they'll fawn over you and thank you for being so honest with them about their issues, it doesn't take long before their attraction starts to dwindle. Opening up to a woman emotionally is weak and women do not like weak Men.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

*I want a guy who
is willing to compromise*

What she MEANS:

I want a guy who lets me have my way all the time

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls don't want compromise, they want control. But to keep from scaring men off, they use the word "compromise" to soften their presentation.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
*How important is
"you time?"*

What she MEANS:
"Me time" is important to me because I can keep my options open

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is an indirect way of telling you that their “me time” is important. If a girl likes you enough she wants to be around you all the time. But as soon as she starts saying she needs some “me time” as explained in chapter 3 of volume 1, she’s already looking for your replacement if she hasn’t found it already. If a woman asks you this on the first date, she’s just using you as a placeholder until a better option comes along.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

How would you define cheating?

What she MEANS:

I'm looking for a loophole so I can cheat

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Sexual contact with another man outside of your committed relationship is cheating. Yes, fucking someone else is obviously cheating, but so is blowing him, kissing him, and exchanging flirty texts. "But Donovan, texting is just texting, it's not sexual!" You're right. It's not. But it always LEADS to cheating. And in the book of Sharpe, any activity that is conducive to infidelity is cheating. Period.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm done putting other people first

What she MEANS:

I never put people first, I'm selfish

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

By “people” she means the men who butt fuck her, give her a dirty sánchez, then blocks her number. Girls are only selfish with the men they use for non sexual companionship. They’re selfLESS with men who use THEM for sex. Girls are naturally selfish. Don’t let them convince you otherwise.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
I've never cheated

What she MEANS:
I broke up with my BF for 24 hours and fucked
another guy

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls pull the “24 hour breakup then get back together” trick all the time. She’ll dump their boyfriend so she can go and get plowed by the black dude who’s been flirting with her at work, then as soon as he leaves her place, she tearfully calls him to tell him she’s made a terrible mistake and wants him back. So while that’s not technically cheating, I don’t know a Man on this planet who would say “Well we were broken up when he shot his load on your face so I’m okay with it” Fuck outta here

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
I'm really down to earth

What she MEANS:
I'm really neurotic but I don't want you to know I am

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Some of the most neurotic females you'll ever meet will tell you they're down to earth or laid back. And as the old red pill saying goes, don't listen to what she says, watch what she does.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm low maintenance

What she MEANS:

I don't like dressing up for my boyfriend
because I'm lazy

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls will tell you this to throw you off the scent in terms of her neuroticism, but this could also mean she doesn't take pride in her personal appearance. A lot of guys don't realize that the best a girl will ever look for you is on the first date. After she secures your commitment, she stops trying altogether.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
I don't need a man

What she MEANS:
If I don't have a man I go crazy

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

The women who constantly squawk about how they don't need a man are always the ones who go absolutely mental when they're single for more than 2 weeks.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm only on one dating app

What she MEANS:

I'm all every dating app....including Christian Mingle

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Any woman who tells you she's on one dating app is on all of them. No woman is ever on just one dating app. It's like a woman telling you she's only fucked 5 guys but sucked 15 dicks. No, she's fucked 45 guys and sucked ALL their dicks.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS: I of II

*I'm super picky
about who I date*

What she MEANS:

I will find a reason to dump you eventually

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of II

*I'm super picky
about who I date*

What she MEANS:

My expectations are unrealistic

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls say they're "picky" about who they date to give themselves a back door to dump you out of the blue for no reason at all. "I told you I was super picky about who I date! Why are you surprised I dumped you?" This statement also implies that her expectations are unrealistic. Hot girls rarely tell people they're selective about who they date because they're hot. They don't have to tell people they don't just date anybody. Oh no, it's the ugly fat girls who pretend they have "standards" to insinuate guys are lining up around the block to date them.

What she SAYS: II of II

I am very confident

What she MEANS:
I'm a bitch

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This one's simple: Women who claim they're confident are bitchy women who want confident men. Period.

What she SAYS:

I am very spontaneous

What she MEANS:

I'm impulsive

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Nosey women also define themselves as “curious”. And like I just explained, bitchy women will define themselves as “confident”. Why should impulsiveness be any different? Trick question...it's not.

What she SAYS: I of II

*I can pay my

What she MEANS:
I'm a feminist

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

What she SAYS: II of II

I can pay my own way!

What she MEANS:

I'm definitely not sleeping with you

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Another simple explanation: Any woman who tells you she can pay her own way is telling you she is a card carrying feminist who doesn't want to feel like she owes you sex because you paid for dinner. To be fair, she doesn't owe you sex because you paid for dinner. But would she be okay with not getting access to your resources even though you're fucking her? Of course not. And this, gentlemen, is why we never commit to feminists.

*You don't have to

What she MEANS:

I'm a feminist

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

No man ever HAS to hold a door open for a lady, but ladies like it when Men hold doors open for them. It's the perfect masculine/feminine dynamic. So if a woman tells you you don't have to open the door for her, she's obviously telling you she's a feminist because despite what she says or does out loud, she LOVES it when Men open doors for her.....as every woman does.

*I'd love to get

What she MEANS:

I want a huge wedding
where I'm the center

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Today's women wanna get married but they don't wanna be wives. Weddings these days are little more than an overpriced party celebrating whatever bratty female decides she wants to be the center of attention. There's a song that perfectly encapsulates today's American women when it comes to holy matrimony. It's called "I don't wanna get married, I just want a wedding."

What she SAYS:

He totally friend zoned me

What she MEANS:

*He uses me for sex but

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

The friend zone for women is very different from the friend zone for Men. When a man gets friendzoned he gets all the companionship without the sex. But when a WOMAN gets friend zoned she gets all the sex without the commitment. So when a girl says a guy friend zoned her, she's still getting butt fucked by him every night.

What she MEANS:

I am selfish and will

What she MEANS:

*I want to sleep around

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Fear of missing out has destroyed many relationships, and even more women. But “FOMO” is just an excuse to keep being sluts. The reason we know this is because most girls have experienced just about every sexual act by the time they’re 25 anyway. So if a girl tells you she’s dumping you because of “FOMO” she’s bullshitting you. She just doesn’t like you anymore.

Why does she say this?

Girls who live alone are the biggest hoes out there. When there are no roommates or family members around to cast judgement on her slutty ways, she feels less guilty about getting ran through.

What she SAYS:

What she MEANS:

*I'm going on a

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Girls trips are little more than glorified bachelorette parties where women give themselves permission to violate their relationships by allowing Men to violate them. I can't tell you how many girlfriends and wives I banged in Vegas who were in town for a "girl's trip". So If your girl tells you she's going on a girl's trip, she's telling you she's going to cheat.

What she MEANS:

Volume III, Chapter I:

Why does she say this?

Girls love to say “I just wanna go out and have fun with my friends” but what they MEAN is that they’re looking for random guy to bang. Think of it this way: If there were no Men allowed at bars or clubs do you think women would get all dolled up to impress each other and “have fun?” Yeah didn’t think so.

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This one applies to any given situation where going out with friends is involved. To the movies, out for drinks, an art museum, concerts, and so forth. If your woman is going out at night with friends, you can bet your ass that the guy she wants to fuck is also going.

What she MEANS:

*I don't like you

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

A lot of guys say "I can't stand it when my girlfriend acts jealous." But there's a big difference between acting jealous and acting crazy every time you do so much as look in a woman's general direction. The truth is...if she's jealous, she still cares. If she isn't, she doesn't. That doesn't mean you tolerate her crazy shenanigans when she overreacts to another woman smiling at you. But by the same token, if that doesn't bother her, then she's probably got one foot out the door.

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is why I always tell my guys to wait at least 6 months before you commit to a woman. Women are experts at pretending to be the woman you want. Then as soon as you commit, she drops the act and the real her comes out. Women can only fake it for so long and 6 months seems to be the line of demarcation...give or take a few months in either direction.

What she SAYS:

I don't cheat

What she MEANS:

*I've cheated on every

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

A girl who tells you she doesn't cheat is like a parent saying "I don't abuse my kids" without being asked. This is how terrible women have become here in the '20s. Cheating is so prevalent and commonplace that women think that by telling you they don't is a badge of honor....and that's if she's being honest....which she most certainly is not....especially if she proactively tells you "I don't cheat"

What she SAYS:

*I'm really not the

What she MEANS:

I am most definitely

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Now keep in mind that a woman being needy is not necessarily a bad thing. If you're the leader in a relationship, your woman is going to need you. But there's a huge difference between being needy, and being high maintenance. Being needy means needing your masculinity and leadership to guide her. Being high maintenance means having to reassure her of everything all the time.

What she SAYS:
I'm not a feminist

What she MEANS:
*But I have

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Most girls today don't identify as feminists. But just about all of them have feminist beliefs. They believe that Men and women are equal...they believe in the ridiculous wage gap myth....they believe that women are "oppressed" and so forth. So just because a woman doesn't call herself a feminist, doesn't mean she won't act like one.

What she SAYS:

I don't like to argue

What she MEANS:

I'm passive aggressive

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

As a Man, you should never argue with your woman in the first place. Arguing with your woman is telling her that she is your equal. That said, a woman who tells you she doesn't like to argue is telling you that when she has an issue, she won't just come right out and tell you. Instead she'll give you the silent treatment or act bitchy until you ask her "what's wrong?" And by the way, if your woman ever tries to give you the silent treatment, ignore her completely. Make her TELL you what her problem is. Otherwise, act as though nothing is wrong.

Womanese Vol. 3

What she SAYS:

*I don't like to

What she MEANS:

I never admit that I'm wrong

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is wishful thinking on a woman's part. She'd like to THINK she can admit when she's wrong but because our culture constantly tells women they can do no wrong, they just can't bring themselves to say "I was wrong." Bless her bitchy little heart for trying to speak this into existence but when's the last time YOU heard a woman say "I was wrong and I'm sorry."

Womanese Vol. 3

What she MEANS:
*I take myself so

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

More wishful thinking. Girls take themselves too seriously all the time...especially after they've hit the wall. These are the girls who like to say "I don't have time for games" which REALLY means "I don't want a guy who plays the game better than I do."

*Sometimes I can

What she MEANS:

Why does she say this?

Women who are compulsive liars will ALWAYS try to throw you off the scent by telling you they're "too honest." This could ALSO mean they don't have a filter which means they say dumb shit all the time. Either way, stay away from women who say this.

What she SAYS:

*I want a man who

What she MEANS:

*I want a man

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women know they will likely never have to need physical protection from imminent danger...especially hot girls. Attractive women are a “protected species” here in the Western Hemisphere. But a Man who knows how to fight is a huge turn on for women, and an essential tool to have as a Man.

What she MEANS:

*I want a man who

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women know that high value Men step out on them. But as long as they don't KNOW about it, they will tamp down their suspicions...but that is IF you know what to. Whatever you do, do not to get caught. A woman will tolerate just about anything from a Man of value and "infidelity" is one of them.

Why does she say this?

Every woman says they want honesty....until, of course, a man is honest with her. Girls are steady squawkin' "be honest with me" "be real with me" Then when a Man says "Look, it's not working out. I don't want to be with you anymore it's "OMG you asshole!" The only time women like a Man's honesty is when he's giving her good news. Remember, women prefer pretty lies to ugly truths. So when a woman says she wants honesty, she's telling you she wants you to sugar coat everything.

What she MEANS:

Money is VERY

Volume III, Chapter I:

Why does she say this?

To be fair, money is important to every woman, as it should. Shaming a woman for prioritizing money in her romantic decisions, is like shaming Men for prioritizing youth and beauty in OUR romantic decisions. Now it's obvious that as a Man of value, you avoid gold diggers. And they're usually the ones who claim money isn't important to them. But ALL women factor in a Man's financial potential and that's not a bad thing.

Why does she say this?

Women love small romantic gestures. But a Man who is over the top romantic all the time will get cheated on in a heartbeat. This isn't to say you shouldn't do romantic things for your woman. If you lose your job and wallow in your own self pity without dusting yourself off and getting back on your grind, your woman WILL leave you. But women know that shit happens, and so long as you get back on your hustle, she won't go anywhere. Yes, she knows shit happens. So she'll give you a little time to lick your wounds and regroup. Volume III, Chapter I:

Why does she say this?

Now this isn't necessarily a bad thing. A woman not wanting a man who isn't established yet is like a man who commits to a fat woman because she got a gym membership. However, there are some women who WILL commit to a Man with potential but that is extremely rare. But at the end of the day, women only want to build with men who are already established. Just like we want women who are already in shape.

What she MEANS:
*I deserve respect from

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Respect falls under the same category as making her feel special. She's gotta EARN your respect. If you just GIVE it to her, she won't respect you in return because she knows she hasn't EARNED your respect which she now knows isn't worth anything because you just gave it to her. There's no free lunch. Women know this.

What she MEANS:

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

A man who drops everything for a woman is a Man who doesn't have a purpose in life. If your woman is "your world" you're doing it wrong. Women don't respect nor do they love men who drop everything for them. Never make time for a woman unless she DESERVES it.

Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

Let's go skydiving!

What she MEANS:

I'm losing interest and I'm looking to find new thrills

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women who are bored are ready to cheat. But a lot of times they suggest engaging in crazy adrenaline fueled activities to scratch that excitement itch. This is often the preamble to their cheating escapades.

Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

Why does it matter where I'm going?

What she MEANS:

I'm cheating on you

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

If you ask your woman where she's going and she responds in this way, your relationship's been over for a while.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

*Don't worry about doing my laundry,
I'll take care of it*

What she MEANS:

I don't want you to see the sexy panties I bought for the guy I'm cheating with

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is another sign guys miss. A woman who is careful about letting you see her dirty laundry or other articles of clothing is a woman trying to hide her cheating.

“It’ll never happen again” Remember, guys, it’s not the first time she cheated, it’s the first time you’ve CAUGHT her. Women are experts at hiding their cheating. So when you find out, it’s likely been happening for a while and it’s never just happened once.

What she SAYS:

We didn't even have sex

What she MEANS:

*We had sex 3
times....wait...
4 times*

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Never let a woman try to convince you that sex didn't happen. It ALWAYS happens.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I'm sorry...I had a crappy signal

What she MEANS:

I was fucking
another guy

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

It's amazing that guys still fall for this. I've fucked scores of wives and girlfriends and when i ask them, "how will you explain this to your boyfriend or husband" a lot of times they say "I'll just tell them I had a crappy signal. They always believe that." And then they laugh as they're putting their bra back on.

What she SAYS:

*I don't care that she flirted with
you. I trust you*

What she MEANS:

I'm not jealous anymore because I'm cheating

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

A woman who doesn't have an adverse reaction to other women flirting with you is a woman who no longer has feelings for you. And if she doesn't have feelings for you, she's completed the branch swinging process and is waiting for the perfect time to tell you "we need to talk"

Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

Of course I love you Kevin...uh...I mean Donovan

What she MEANS:

I'm cheating with a guy named Kevin

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

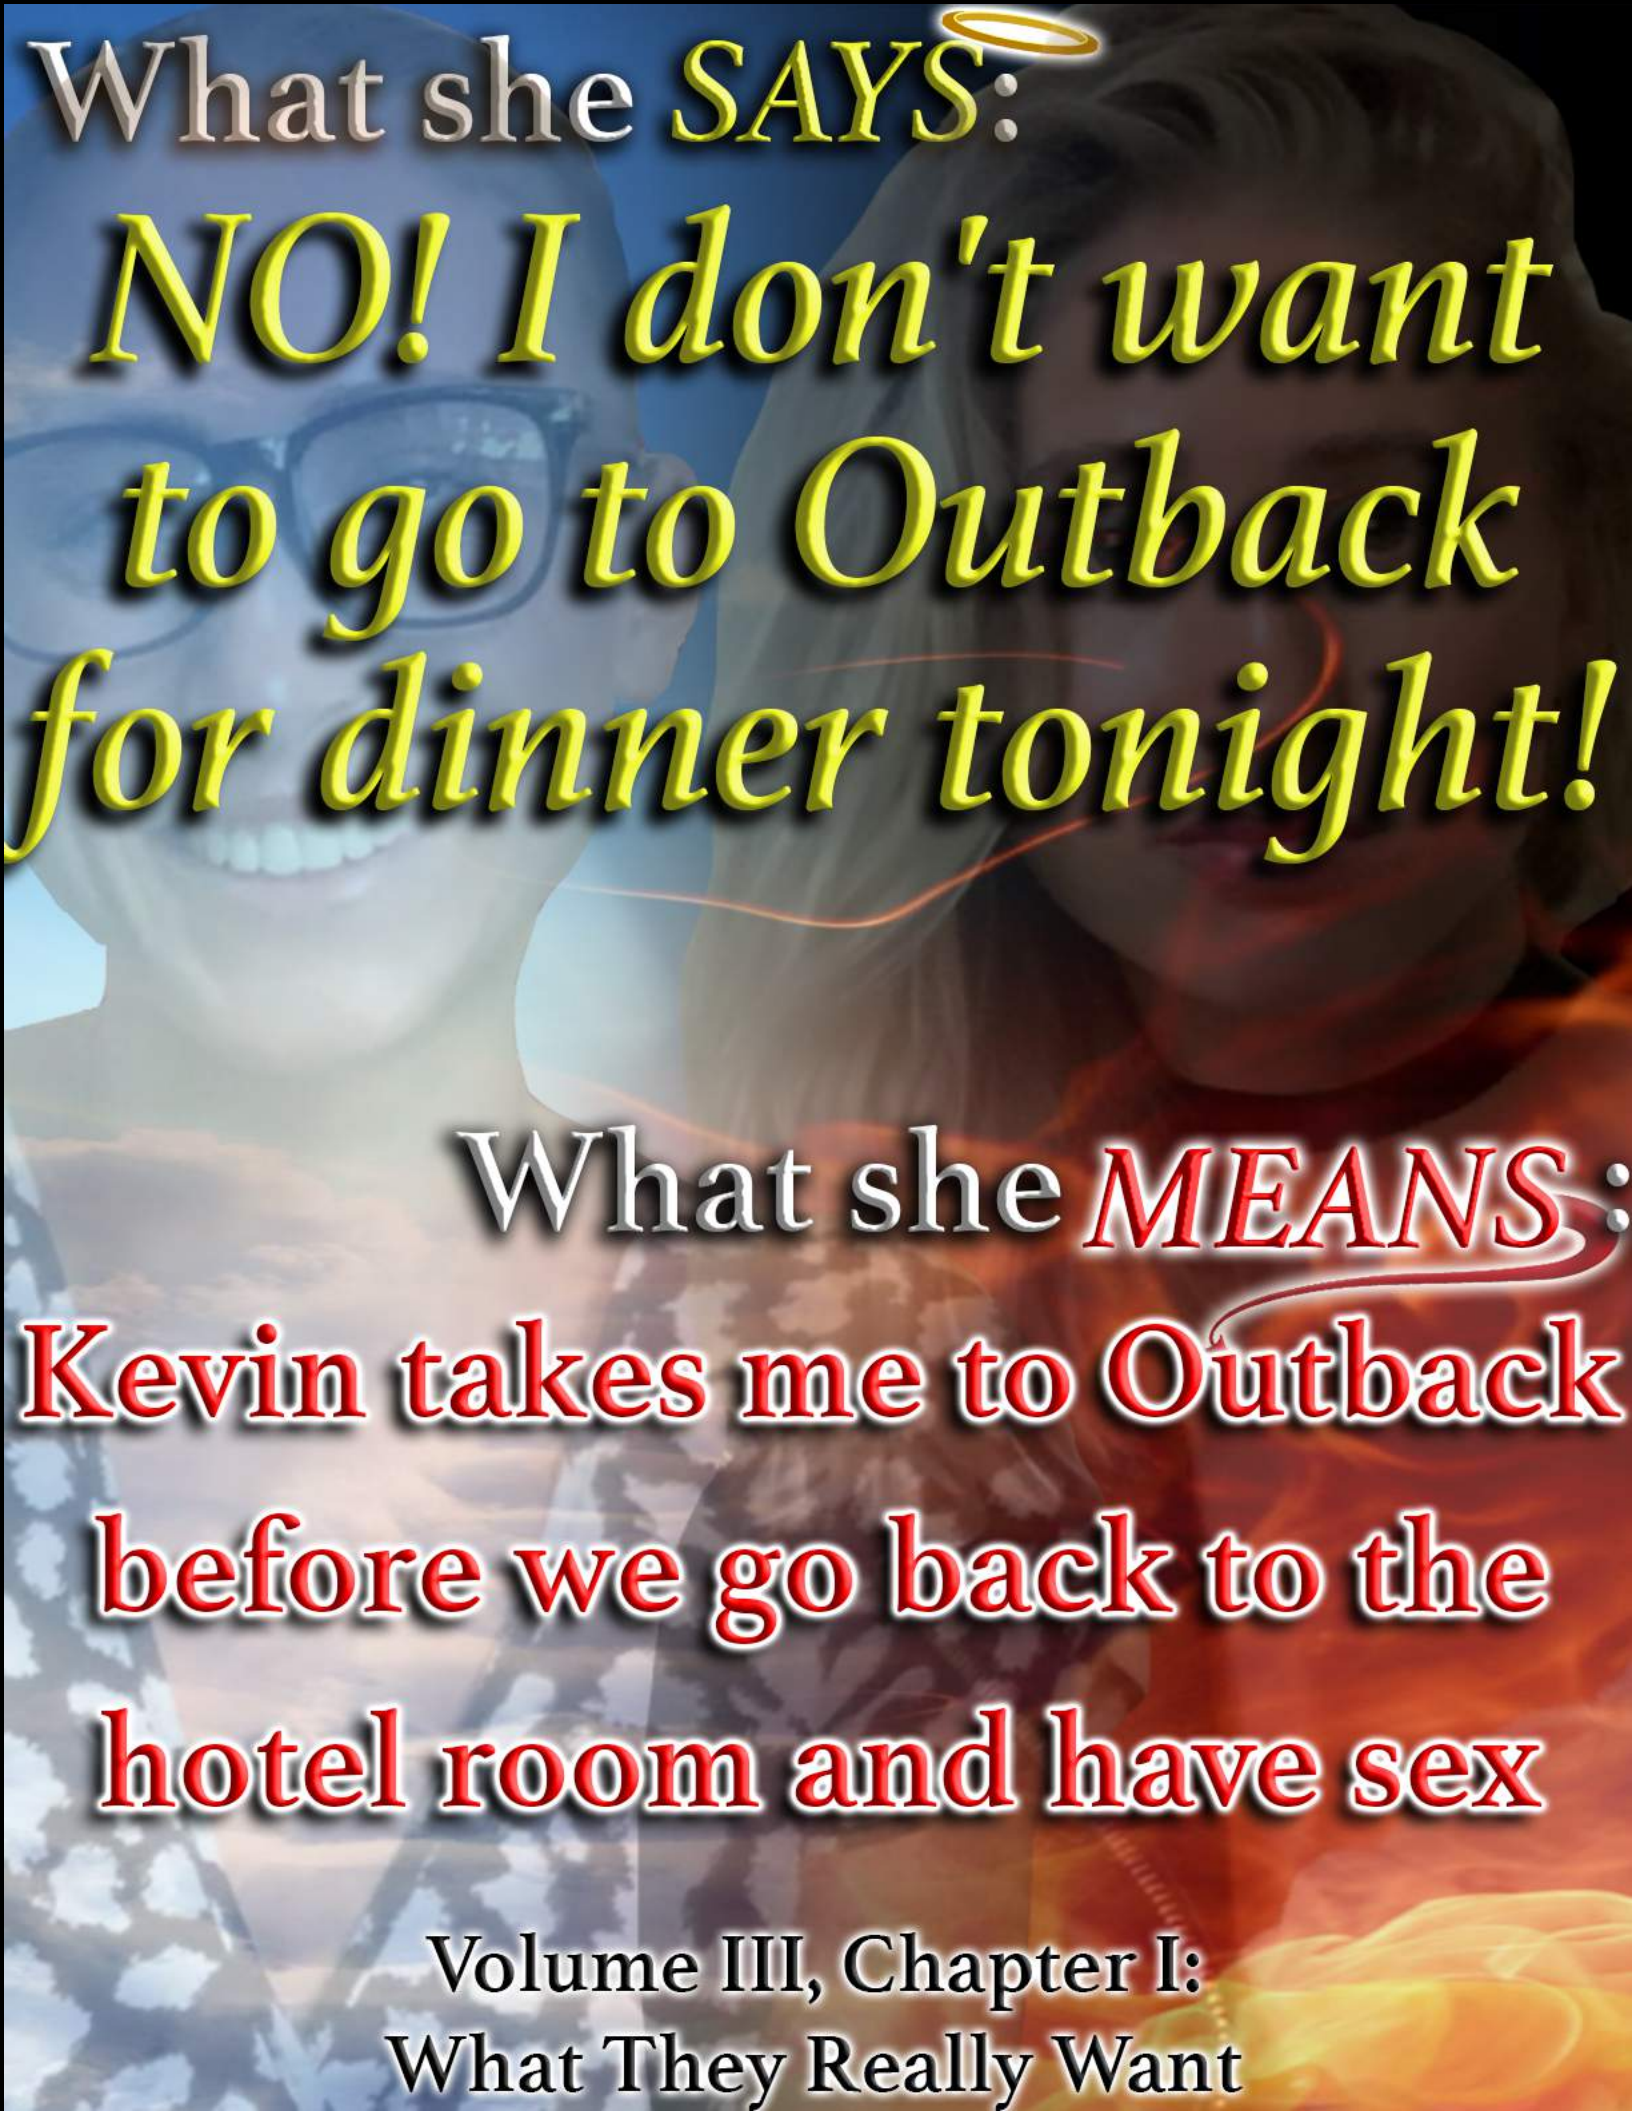

Why does she say this?

If you choose to ignore this, then you deserve whatever happens to you.

→ Womanese Vol. 3

What she SAYS:
NO! I don't want to go to Outback for dinner tonight!

What she MEANS:
Kevin takes me to Outback before we go back to the hotel room and have sex

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

If your girl's side dude is taking her places, she'll avoid them like the plague when she's with you. Stand your ground and say "Nah, we're going to Outback" and watch the fireworks.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

*I am so in love with you. I can't believe how lucky
I am*

What she MEANS:

I want you to think I love you to cover up my cheating

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

One of the most obvious signs of female cheating is love bombing you out of nowhere. Girls never just proclaim their undying love for you out of nowhere. There's always a reason...and these days it's most likely to cover up cheating.

What she SAYS:

I'm not happy in this relationship

What she MEANS:

I'm cheating and I'm about to leave you

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

She may as well have told you “we need to talk.” women are never straight up about anything. So when they are, they’re already packing their bags.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

What do you mean? I've had this outfit for years

What she MEANS:

This outfit is new. And I wear it for the guy I'm cheating with

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is why you have to pay attention. Men who sleepwalk through their relationships always end up questioning themselves after their women convince them they're just seeing things. If you're paying attention, you'll know she's full of shit and can act accordingly.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

What? I curl my hair all the time!

What she MEANS:

The guy I'm fucking loves when I curl my hair

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

If your girl all of a sudden changes her look, it's 100% because the guy she's fucking likes that certain look. I can't tell you how many times I've told the wives and girlfriends to change or dye their hair, or change their hairstyle, or wear this or that and they've complied without hesitation. Girls never change their hair for nothing. I speak from personal experience on both ends.

Womanese Vol. 3
→ Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:
OMG you gave me an STD!

What she MEANS:
The guy I'm cheating with gave me an STD

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

This is a desperation move on her attempt to cover up her cheating. She has to stick to the lie to avoid being held accountable but if you're not cheating on her, then she's definitely cheating on you.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I need to hire a personal trainer

What she MEANS:

I'm getting into shape so I can attract other Men

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

Women never get in shape for their health. They get in shape to get more dick. If your woman all of a sudden expresses interest in improving her physique, it's not because she wants to impress you. And as a side note, a lot of them start fucking their trainers after a few weeks anyway.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

*Does it really matter what my relationship status
says?*

What she MEANS:

I changed my relationship status because I'm cheating

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

A woman who changes her relationship status from being in a relationship to “single” or “it’s complicated” or anything like that, she’s definitely taking dick on the side.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I need a separate IG account for my modeling

What she MEANS:

I need a separate account to communicate with the guy I'm cheating with

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Why does she say this?

“Instagram models” are hoes anyway so you shouldn’t commit to them in the first place. But if you’re dumb enough to commit to these girls, then you deserve to be lied to.

→ Womanese Vol. 3
Professor Sharpe

What she SAYS:

I think I need to get on birth control

What she MEANS:

I want to stop using condoms with the guy I'm cheating with

Volume III, Chapter I:
What They Really Want

Chapter II

Identifying Psychos

Most of us understand that the best part of any relationship is the beginning. Everything is new, the sex is good, she's on her best behavior and life couldn't be better. But somewhere along the way, she starts to get attached....I mean REALLY attached.

And while you might think it's sweet of her to be texting you all day and talks about how much she misses you all the time, these could be signs that you're dealing with a real life psycho. As in a woman with a mental illness, diagnosed or otherwise.

The background is a complex collage. On the left, a woman's face is shown in profile, looking towards the right. In the center, a man's face is visible, looking forward. On the right, a woman in a white wedding dress is shown from the waist up, holding a handgun. The overall color palette is dominated by reds, oranges, and yellows, with some blue and green accents. The text is overlaid on this collage in a white, serif font with a black outline.

This chapter will help you identify psychos, stalkers, and crazy girls. Like the old addage says, “crazy in the head, crazy in the bed.” While it’s nice that she’s a tigress in the sack psychos will always bring chaos into your life if you keep them around long enough. But knowing what to look and listen for during that blissful honeymoon period will help you avoid the kinds of women who show up at your job in a wedding dress with mascara running down her face wielding a .44 caliber hand gun screaming “Till death do us part!”

*Note: There will not be explantions to these translations as they are self explanitory.

What she SAYS:

*Sometimes I take an anti depressant
but not every day*

What she MEANS:

I've been diagnosed with depression and/or another mental illness
